THE COMPLEAT COOPER UNION

We compiled this book to help you in the future remember your friends and classmates at Cooper Union. Assembled in dictionary form, we hope it will serve both as a collective memoir and a reference book. At its completion we wish to thank the people whose assistance and cooperation have made this book truly compleat.

We thank Mr. Alan Green, the acting President of the Cooper Union.
In Student Services we thank
Ms. Marilyn Gore and Ms. Jo Hiner.
Elsewhere we thank
Mr. Bob Hopkins of the Computer Center
We also thank Mr. George Sadek, Ms. Mindy Lang, and Ms. Marina Kyprianou of the Center for Design and Typography.

In making the Compleat Cooper Union we referenced the structure and content found in other dictionaries. We acknowledge this use and are appreciative of everything that has contributed to the clarity and appearance of this work.

Andrew Fethes Arch Originally from the beautiful and bountiful Bergen County, New Jersey, this rather dashing and debonair dude has been frequently seen aboard a red and tan bus travelling rapidly across the George Washington Bridge. The overly courious observer who should desire a closer look must take notice that while not normally dangerous, if approached too early in the morning, he can and will branish A T-square with deadly accuracy. Some incredulous reports claim to have overheard him say,'Yes, I have never been to Charett!'

Ann Marie Sweeney A. Found in the darkroom, and after painting class talking gibberish due to a very low tolerance to terpentine and other chemicals. Hard for some people to believe, AMS was born and raise on Long Island. Her hippy tendencies may be the root of this. A reformed workaholic now refuses to put in an all-nighter. But still has trouble making sure she eats at least twice a day. Starts talking backwards for no reason. Can often be heard on the the fifth floor saying,'John! I know what I'm doing, up shut!' Has been practicing the skill of sleeping with the eyes open for the last four years. Where can you find AMS now? Try Long Island 84 Russell Road, Garden City N.Y. 11530.

John Ingargiola CE Known by his followers as the infamous "Johnny I", this dashing young Sicilian was left for dead after doing irrevocable damage to his GPA. But with a glimmer of hope and the support of many the "boy from the boot" conquered the challenge of Cooper Union (albeit a year later than most people). From ice cream to ice skating, Johnny I's efforts in student activities have yielded admiration and praise from many students. This has made Johnny I very happy. On the lighter side, Johnny I's hobbies include: doing the Johnny I shuffle, playing with his band, "The Seam", and teaching young girls the mamba

John Kain EE this commuting Staten Islandite dreamt great dreams of either doing great deeds when he grew up or watching reruns of the Jetsons all day long but ended up at the Cooper Union anyway. A likeable EE (despite being a Staten Islandite), his distinguishing features include a mop of red hair and a mischievous grin. A munster punster, he leaves his opponents with his maniacal laughter ringing in the hallways. Favorite addictions include semi-decent Mexican food, cherry coke, and anything including caffeine, (by the way...yes, you can bribe him with enchiladas if you need a favor, but no beans please). Favorite pastimes include KAOS softball, bowling, Flatlander volleyball, and hanging out with Chem E's.

Only the lab contains sufficient water for his liquid consumption. The limit of this creature's consumption has never beeen determined although it has been reported to have eaten a triple decker sandwich, a gyro, 2 slices of pizza, two liters of coke, and half of a watermelon in one two-hour sitting. So if you happen to meet this creature, run very quickly because its motto is "if I can catch it, I can eat it!" (this means you)

Teresa Mastropierro A. n.[from Fr. pierre d'achoppement, stumbling block] a short nocturnal animal which lives in a closet and subsists on a diet consisting mainly of cold rice and coffee. Several fifth and sixth floor observers have reported unusual schizophrenic behavior, but note that she does not appear excessively dangerous.

Terry Mastin A. On Fridays Terry sometimes develops a growth protruding from her back, which is removed on Monday or Tuesday. Her natural habitat is Vermont, so when she's in the city she escapes to the planetarium known as darkroom, with its babbling brook and twinkling stars. This is a toxic induced hallucination familiar to most photo students. Her most common phrase is "John, will you cut it out!" After just two hours of sleep, Terry can be heard saying something like "Alvin Eisenman is gonna be really spaced out!" RR #2, Box 1392. Putney Vt. 05346.

See ya later, George! (I.L.Y.) I need my spices! You killed my brother! And she used to fall down a lot. That girl was always falling again and again. And I used to sometimes try to catch her, but never even caught her name. Let no man hurl my epithet.

Thomas Passante EE known by most as the nice guy who's always smiling. Loves going to Puglia's in Little Italy and the Manhattan Brewing Company, which help him forget his "imaginary problems". Also known as "Mr. Coupon" he loves that "Damn beer from Spain". Cannot avoid hand motions and strange sound effects while telling a story. Enjoys dancing and playing the alto sax and clarinet with Pro Musica. Participated in "Flatlander" volleyball and bowling. Likes most activities except roller skating and eating at Hunan. When not involved in any of the above, you may run into him on the Staten Island Ferry.
